ed by the party who is by Law enabled to declare such Trust, or by his last Will in Writing, or else they shall be utterly void, and of none effect.

Provided always, That where any Conveyance shall be made of any Lands or Tenements, by which a Trust or Confidence shall or may arise or result by the Implication or Construction of Law, or be transferred or extinguished by an Act or operation of Law; then, and in every such Case, such Trust or Confidence shall be of the like force and effect, as the same would have been if this Statute had not been made; Any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted, That all Grants and Assignments of any Trust or Confidence, shall likewise be in Writing, signed by the party granting or assigning the same by such last Will or Devise, or else shall likewise be utterly void, and of none effect.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Four and twentieth day of June, it shall and may be lawful for every Sheriff, or other Officer, to whom any Writ or Precept is or shall be directed, at the suit of any person or persons, of, for, and upon any Judgment, Statute, or Recognizance hereafter to be made or had, to do, make and deliver Execution unto the party in that behalf suing, of all such Lands, Tenements, Tenements, Rectories, Tithes, Rents and Hereditaments, as any other person or persons be in any manner of wise seised or possessed, or hereafter shall be seised or possessed in Trust for him against Whom Execution is so sued, like as the Sheriff or other Officer might or ought to have done, if the said party against Whom Execution hereafter shall be so sued, had been seised of such Lands, Tenements, Rectories, Tithes, Rents, or other Hereditaments of such Estate as they be seised of in Trust for him at the time of the said Execution sued; Which Lands, Tenements, Rectories, Tithes, Rents, and other Hereditaments, by force and virtue of such Execution, shall accordingly be held and enjoyed, freed and discharged from all Incumbrances of such person or persons as shall be so seized or possessed in Trust for the person against Whom such Execution shall be sued; And if any Cestuy que Trust hereafter shall die, leaving a Trust in Fee-simple to descend to his Heir, there, and in every such case, such Trust shall be deemed and taken, and is hereby declared to be Assets by descent, and the Heir shall be lyable to, and chargeable with the Obligation of his Ancestors for and by reason of such Assets, as fully and amply as he might or ought to have been, if the Estate in Law had descended to him in possession in like manner as the Trust descended; Any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Provided always, That no Heir that shall become chargeable by reason of any Estate or Trust made Assetts in his hands by this Law, shall by reason of any kind of Plea, or Confession of the Action, or suffering Judgment by Nient dedire, or any other matter, be chargeable to pay the Condemnation out of his own Estate, but Execution shall be sued of the whole Estate so made Assetts in his hands by descent, in whose hands soever it shall come, after the writ purchased, in the same manner as it is to be at and by the Common Law, where the Heir at Law pleading a true Plea, Judgment is prayed against him thereupon; Any thing in this present Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And for the amendment of the Law in the particulars following, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from henceforth any Estate per auter Vie shall be devisable by a Will in Writing, signed by the party so devising the same, or by some other person in his presence, and by his express directions, attested and subscribed in the presence of the Devisor by three or more Witnesses; and if no such Devise thereof be made, the same shall be chargeable in the hands of the Heir, if it shall come to him by reason of a Special Occupancy, as Assetts by descent, as in case of Lands in Fee-simple; And in case there be no Special Occupant thereof, it shall go to the Executors or Administrators of the party that had the Estate thereof by virtue of the Grant, and shall be Assets in their Lands.

And Whereas it hath been found mischievous, that Judgments in the Kings Courts at Westminster do many times relate to the first day of the Term whereof they are entred, or to the day of the Return of the Original, or Filing the Bail, and bind the Defendants Lands from that time, although in truth they were acknowledged, or suffered and signed in the Vacation-time after the said Term, whereby many times Purchasers find themselves agrieved;

Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Four and twentieth day of June, any Judge, or Officer of any of his Majesties Courts of Westminster, that shall sign any Judgments, shall at the signing of the same, without Fee for doing the same, set down the day of the Moneth and Year of his so doing, upon the Paper, Book, Docket, or Record which he shall sign; which day of the Moneth and Year shall be also entred upon the Margin of the Roll of the Record where the said Judgment shall be entred.

And be it Enacted, That such Judgments as against Purchasers bona fide for valuable Consideration of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments to be charged ged thereby, shall in consideration of Law, be Judgments only from such time as they shall be so signed, and shall not relate to the first day of the Term whereof they are entred, or the day of the Return of the Original, or Filing the Bail; Any Law, Usage, or Course of any Court to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Four and twentieth day of June, no Writ of Fieri facias, or other Writ of Execution, shall bind the Property of the Goods against Whom such Writ of Execution is sued forth, but from the time that such Writ shall be delivered to the Sheriff, Under-sheriff, or Coroners, to be executed: And for the better manifestation of the said time, the Sheriff, Under-sheriff, and Coroners, their Deputies and Agents, shall, upon the receipt of any such Writ (Without Fee for doing the same) endorse upon the back thereof, the day of the Month or Year whereon he or they received the same.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Four and Twentieth day of June, no Contract for the sale of any Goods, Wares or Merchandises, for the Price of Ten Pounds Sterling, or upwards, shall be allowed to be good, except the Buyer shall accept part of the Goods so sold,
and

and actually receive the same, or give something in earnest to bind the Bargain, or in part of payment, or that some Note or Memorandum in Writing, of the said Bargain, be made and Signed by the parties to be charged by such Contract, or their Agents thereunto lawfully Authorized.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the day of the month, and year of the Enrollment of the Recognizances, shall be set down in the margin of the Roll, where the said Recognizances are Enrolled; and that from and after the said Four and twentieth day of June, no Recognizance shall bind any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, in the hands of any Purchaser bona fide, and for valuable consideration, but from the time of such Enrollment; Any Law, Usage or Course of any Court to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

And for prevention of fraudulent Practices, in setting up Nuncupative Wills, which have been the occasion of much Perjury, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the aforesaid Four and twentieth day of June, no Nuncupative Will shall be good, where the Estate thereby bequeathed shall exceed the value of Thirty pounds, that is not proved by the Oathes of Three Witnesses (at the least) that were present at the making thereof, nor unless it be proved that that the Testator at the time of Pronouncing the same, did bid the persons present, or some of them bear Witness, that such was his Will, or to that effect; nor unless such Nuncupative Will were made in the time of the last Sicknes of the deceased, and in the house of his or their habitation or dwelling, or where he or she hath been resident for the space of Ten days, or more, next before the making of such Will, except where such person was surprized or taken sick, being from his own home, and dyed before he returned to the place of his or her dwelling.

And be it further Enacted, That after Six moneths passed after the speaking of the pretended Testamentary words, no Testimony shall be received to prove any Will Nuncupative, except the said Testimony, or the substance thereof were committed to Writing within six days after the making of the said Will.

And be it further Enacted, That no Letters Testamentary, or Probate of any Nuncupative Will, shall pass the Seal of any Court, till fourteen days at the least after the decease of the Testator be fully expired: Nor shall any Nuncupative Will be at any time received to be proved, unless Process have first issued to call in the Widow, or next of kindred to the deceased, to the end they may contest the same, if they please.

And be it further Enacted, That no
A a a Will

Will in Writing concerning any Goods or Chattels, or Personal Estate, ſhall be repealed, nor ſhall any Clause, Deuiſe, or Bequeſt therein, be altered or changed by any Words, or Will by Word of mouth only, except the ſame be in the life of the Teſtator committed to Writing, and after the Writing thereof read unto the Teſtator, and allowed by him, and proved to be ſo done by three Witneſſes at the leaſt.

Provided always, That notwithstanding this Act, any Souldier being in actual Military Service, or any Mariner or Sea-man being at Sea, may diſpoſe of his Mobables, Wages, and Personal Estate, as he or they might have done before the making of this Act.

And it is hereby declared, That nothing in this Act ſhall extend to alter, or change the Jurisdiction or Right of Probate of Wills concerning Personal Estates, but that the Prerogative Court of the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and other Eccleſiaſtical Courts, and other Courts having Right to the Probate of ſuch Wills, ſhall retain the ſame Right and Power as they had before, in every reſpect; Subject nevertheless to the Rules and Directions of this Act.

And for the explaining One Act of this preſent Parliament, Entituled, An Act for the better ſetling of Inteſtates Estates; Be it declared by the Authority aforeſaid, said, That neither the said Act, nor any thing therein contained, shall be construed to extend to the Estates of Feme-Coverts that shall die Intestate, but that their Husbands may demand and have Administration of their Rights, Credits, and other Personal Estates, and recover and enjoy the same, as they might have done before the making of the said Act.

CAROLI II. REGIS. 187

An Act for erecting a Judicature to determine Differences touching Houses Burnt and Demolished by the late dreadful Fire in South-wark.

As much as great part of the Houses within the ancient Burrough of South-wark, by reason of a sudden and lamentable Fire therein happening on or about the Six and twentieth day of May last past, were consumed and burned down, or otherwise destroyed, demolished or defaced; by reason whereof many Suits and Controversies are arisen, and more dayly are likely to arise between the Proprietors, Tenants, under-Tenants or late Occupiers, for and concerning the repairing, rebuilding, and payment of Rents, who are not relievable therein therein in any ordinary course of Law, insomuch that if the same should not be speedily determined, many of the late Inhabitants must be ruined, and the rebuilding much obstructed; And for that it is just that every one concerned should bear a proportionable share in the loss, according to their several interests, wherein, in respect of the multitude of Cases varying in their several circumstances, no certain General rule can be prescribed; And whereas many Tenants and under-Tenants, late occupiers of the said Houses, for the continuance of their Trade, and to encourage the rebuilding, have built up and finished several Houses of much better use and ornament then ever the same were before, depending upon the Justice of the Nation for an Act of Parliament to be passed for determination of the Premises, and encouragement of Builders, according to many late examples in cases of like calamity:

Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and With the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That the Justices of the Courts of Kings Bench and Common-pleas, and the Barons of the Exchequer for the time being, the Lord Mayor of London, and the Recorder for the time being, and every Alderman who hath heretofore borne the State
